MRS. HARGROVE NEW PRESIDENT

Rushville Woman Head of Methodist Woman's Home Missionary Society of This District.

ALSO IS NATIONAL DELEGATE

Feature of Annual Meeting at Glenwood Yesterday is Address
by National Field Secretary.

Mrs. R. C. Hargrove of this city yesterday was elected president of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Connersville district, Indiana conference, of the Methodist Episcopal church, at the annual meeting of the society at Glenwood, and also was chosen delegate from the Indiana conference to the national convention of the society in 1914.

Approximately sixty delegates were in attendance at the meeting.
There were twelve from the Rushville society, five from Shelbyville,
three from Brookville and twenty-four from Connersville in addition to the twenty members in the Glenwood society.

Th royal entertainment given the visitors by the Glenwood society was a distinct feature of the meeting.
The guests were treated to a buffet luncheon in the basement of the Lewark garage at noon and evening.

The Glenwood society has had a most wonderful growth. It was organized five years ago with only enough members to fill the offices.
Now there are twenty members with prospects of more. Fourteen of the twenty members are subscribers to the society paper, which is a better showing than any society in the district could make.

The next meeting will be held at the First M. E. church in Shelbyville in either May of June of next year.
The date will be decided by the conference officers. It was also announced that the annual meeting of the Home Missionary society of the Indiana conference would be held at Connersville next November the address of Mrs. Madison Swadener, the Indiana conference president,
was an inspiration to the delegates.
She pointed out the ways in which the societies could do a wonderful work, and showed what a vast field
of endeavor there was.

The closing address last night of Mrs. C. Weaver of Oregon, one of the national field secretaries for the society, was clearly the most interesting part of the program. She outlined the national work, told of its

MR. JINX WILL HAVE TO GO AND GET A REPUTATION

Old Man Jinx was not on the job today even though this was the hoodoo day of the week, the hoodoo
day of the month of the hoodoo year
many people seemed to be deporting of the twentieth century. Just as themselves, but they got away with it.

The only marked feature of the day when superstitious ones say misadventures should be plentiful was the scarcity of news. There is probably a reason. Everyone noted the combination and had a care. There were no venturesome people in Rushville who wanted to try a trick on fate.

No one walked under a falling brick down at the corner of Main and Second streets, where a building is being wrecked. All the horses about

MISSIONARIES TO FILL PULPIT

Men Who Have Gained Renown in Foreign Fields Will Speak at Christian Church Sunday.

BANQUET ON MONDAY NIGHT

The Main Street Christian church congregation is preparing for a special day next Sunday when two foreign missionaries of national repute will occupy the pulpit. A. E.
Cory, for fifteen years a missionary in China, who came back about a year ago to do some special work in the United States, will talk in the morning at the regular church hour and Dr. Royal J. Dye, an African missionary will speak in the evening.
Mr. Cory is termed the missionary statesman of China. He was close to the Chinese officials during his work there and assisted materially in shaping the Chinese republic. Dr.
Dye did his most notable work at Bolonge, Congo Free State, Africa, which is located on the equator. He established a church which now has more than a thousand members.

Monday evening a free banquet for the official oard members, and their wives, of the Rushville, Con-nersville, Morristown and Arlington Christian churches will be held when Bruce L. Kershner, in addition to Cory and Dr. Dye, will speak, a hundred and fifty are expected. The fried chicken banquet will be served by the Ladies Aid society.

CONSOLATION MEETING HELD

Two Women Whom Charles Reed, Confessed Bigamist, Duped Meet
For First Time at Knightstown.

BOTH WILL ASK FOR DIVORCE

First Wife Leaves For Fostoria,
Ohio to Recover Diamond Ring
Reed Stole and Pawned.

Mrs. Mary Reed of Rochester, New York, the first wife of Charles Reed, the bigamist, who after duping his first wife, got acquainted with Mrs.
Nancy Bailey, wealthy Knightstown widow, through a matrimonial bureau, and married her, left Newcastle
yesterday evening for Fostoria, Ohio, where Reed confessed he pawned a diamond ring he stole from his first before leaving to marry the Knights-town widow.

The Henry circuit court made short work of Reed after he was arrested last Saturday night on a warrant sworn to by his first wife.
He admitted his guilt and was sentenced to a term of two to five years in the state prison. Wednesday he was taken to begin the term.

Mrs. Reed feels the disgrace of the situation keenly and is anxious to get the tangles straightened in order that she can again settle down to a peaceful life. She was anxious to see her erring husband but was prevented as Reed started for the penitentiary early Wednesday, the Newcastle Star says. He was anxious to get away as he did not want to face the woman that he had duped.

"My marriage and experience with Reed was the result of a joke and it has been a cruel one at that," said Mrs. Reed. "A number of my friends in Jersey City, where I resided at the time of my marriage to him, and myself answered advertisements in a matrimonial journal in a jocular manner. I drew Reed in the lottery and certainly got the booby prize. He was located in Rochester and came to Jersey City to see me.
He wanted to marry me at once but I would not consent, but after six weeks and many visits I finally and foolishly became his wife.

"From the start Reed began to plan to get my property. He wanted me to give him an interest in my bank account and transfer my property to him but I would not consent.
I had some confidence in him and consequently did not protect my jewelry, leaving my rings laying about the house. One morning Reed left saying that he was going to work. He even kissed me as he departed. About an hour later I missed my three diamond rings and then I realized that I had been duped.

"I made no effort to find Reed
then as I was so ashamed and put out that I did not want my two daughters and my brothers and sisters to know of my predicament and how I had been made the victim of a crook. One day I received a letter from an Indiana woman who told me where Reed was and that he was married again. Then and there I started an investigation determined to prosecute him and send him to prison if possible. I am overjoyed to know that he is in prison but am sorry that the term is not longer."

Mrs. Reed learned of her husband's marriage through the efforts of a daughter of Mrs. Bailey. She mis-trusted her mother's second husband
from the start and when she heard him mention of his working for a contrator in Rochester, N. Y., she wrote to the builder who turned her letter over to the Jersey City woman.
The two women corresponded for a

MEREDITH DID NOT WANT TASK

Richmond Man Had Chance to Testify Against T. R. in Libel Case
But Refuses.

NOT CERTAIN ABOUT COLONEL

Declines to Take Stand Because he Had Never Seen Roosevelt
Take Drink.

It became known for the first time today that Linus P. Meredith, former sheriff and Republican district chairman, was asked to testify in behalf of Editor Newett of the Ishpeming Iron Ore in the recent libel case brought against the Michigan man by Col. Theodore Roosevelt, says the Richmond Palladium.

Meredith flatly refused to take the stand against the former president for the very good reason that he could not testify that he had ever seen Col Roosevelt intoxicated.

Following Col. Roosevelt's tour of Indiana with ex-senator Albert J.
Beveridge, when the latter was a candidate for re-election, a story began to circulate that both Senator Beveridge and Col. Roosevelt had been intoxicated aboard their special train, which Meredith was a passenger from Anderson to Richmond.
Knowing that Meredith was connected with the Republican organization
in this state and acting on the supposition that he might be prejudiced against the colonel, representatives of Newett interviewed him in the hope that he might make a valuable witness for the editor.

"I told them that while I might have thought the colonel acted in a peculiar manner I could not testify that he was drunk because I did not see him take a drink," Meredith stated today.

Col. Roosevelt was very angry
when his train arrived in Richmond, owing to delays in the schedule and because he could not speak in Richmond, as he had planned to do, and in venting his indignation expressed himself quite frankly. This gave rise to a report that he was drunk.

WOULD FURNISH LIGHTS TO TOWN

Spiceland Council Gets Proposition
From George O. Spencer on Street Lighting.

TO HAVE PUBLIC HEARING

The residents of Spiceland are now looking forward to the time when that little city will along with its other modern improvements, have electric lights. This has been a long felt need and up to a short time ago
all propositions to get a lighting system seemed all without avail.

However, George Otis Spencer has made a proposition to the town council which is being favorably considered by most of the residents of the town. The council has given legal notice of a contract with Spencer and a public hearing will be given on June 25.

The terms of the contract are much the same as those of all lighting contracts in the smaller towns.
Spencer agrees to install and keep in condition at least sixty incandescent lamps of sixty candle power each,
for which the town will pay a rental of $20 a year. The life of the contract is ten years.

CATCHES 8-POUND EEL

Indianapolis Man Has Luck Fishing
in Flatrock.

Morton Crisler of Indianapolis,
who has been visiting relatives at St.
Paul for several days, went fishing at Flatrock recently. He had no luck for a time and started to pull his hook from the water. It seemed to be fastened, but with continued pulling it yielded. When he got the hook out of the water he saw what he thought was a snake, but his St.
Paul relation told him he had caught an eel. The fish was thirty-six inches long and weighed eight pounds.

IS CALLED TO DECATUR COUNTY

T. A. Coleman Will Meet Agricultural Board Relative to Appointment of a Agent.

WILL POINT OUT HIS DUTIES

Prof. G. I. Christie of Purdue University, says the Greensburg News,
this morning wrote County Superintendent F. C. Fields that T. A. Coleman of Rushville, assistant state agent, who has in charge the county agricultural agents, would be in Greensburg on Wednesday, June 18,
at which time he will meet with the Decatur county agricultural board for the purpose of going further into the appointment of a county agent here
and an extensive outline of the duties of the office.

On receipt of the letter, Mr.
Fields at once sent out circular letters calling attention of the local board to the importance of being present at this meeting, which is scheduled to be held at his office in the court house.

PARCEL POST C.O.D. TO BE INSTALLED

Department Issues Orders to Postmasters Announcing New System
Will go in Effect July 1.

LIMIT OF VALUE PUT AT $100

Instructions to postmasters have been issued for handling C. O. D. pacel post packages. The regulations will be effective July 1.

Charges on packages will be collected from addressees on and after that date provided the amount on a single parcel post does not exceed $100. The fee for collection will be 10 cents in parcel post stamps, to be affixed by the sender. This fee also will insure the package against loss to the actual value of the contents
not exceeding $50.

The sender will get a receipt showing the amount to be collected, the amount also appearing on a tag attached to the package. The addressee will receipt for the package on the tag, which will serve as an application for a money order. C. O. D. pacel post may be accepted for mailing by rural carriers and special delivery messengers. Such packages will not be mailable either to the Philippines or to the canal zone.

The Rush County Horse Thief Detective Association will meet tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock in the assembly room of the court house.

ARGUE BUT BOTH LOSE REWARD

Reason Was That None Had Been Offered For Recovery of Automobile Found Near Knightstown.

OFFICIALS IN A WRANGLE

Constable and Town Marshal Almost Come to Blows Over Who Should Have That $250.

When George H. Bushmann, a traveling agent, says the Indianapolis Star, went to Knightstown yesterday to bring back his automobile, which was stolen from in front of the Shortridge High School Building Wednesday night, he found the interest of the entire populace centered upon his machine while a hoaryhaired constable and an irate marshal quarreled over who should receive the rumored reward of $250.

Buschmann found that he, as owner of the machine, cut a small figure. The question of debate was not who was to claim the car and pay the reward, but who would get the $250. As a matter of fact no reward had been offered.

An early morning shopper drove in from the country and told the Knightstown marshal of seeing an abandoned automobile along the road three miles out of Knightstown. The marshal at once procured an auto and went after the stranded car. He found, however that the breaks on the abandoned car would not work and the car he was attempting to pull in kept running into the rear of his car. At last, after towing the machine a mile, he left it to go after gasoline with the intention of running it in.

While the marshal was after gasoline the constable came along. He, too, had heard of a reward, so he

The "Self-Interest League" of America

The most natural, the most human, if not the most altruistic, bond is that of self interest.

There are thousands of associations, leagues, and societies all over the country that bear witness to the uniting force of a common, personal cause.

The biggest society in the country is one that has no
president, no by-laws, nor, in fact, any specified organization.
Yet practically every man and woman belongs to it.

It is the Society of Newspaper Readers. Their only bond is that of self interest.

All men and women know that in order to be able to hold their own with their neighbors
they must learn what the newspapers have to tell them, not only in regard to general events of the day, but also in regard to the specific activities of the locality in which they live.

The advertisements in the reliable newspapers are no less important and are very apt to be of more lasting value in this matter of self interest.

Being a member of the league means that you are up-and-doing, progressive, and alive to your own welfare.

MAKES FROG'S HEART BEAT BY MAGNETISM.

French Scientist Tells of His New Experiments.

Dr. Henry Durville of Paris, whose feats of mummification and preservation of animal and vegetable bodies by the magnetism that passes from his hands are attested by well known physicians, now asserts that by similar passes he has been able to extend in an extraordinary way the results obtained by Dr. Carrel in preserving life in the detached parts of living organism.

According to Dr. Durville, he has succeeded in keeping a frog's heart, immersed in a seven-tenths of 1 per cent solution of salt water, beating for twenty-four hours and more by "magnetizing" it with passes from time to time. In this way, he says, he has also succeeded in making the hinder part of a frog respond to an electric current fifteen days after killing the animal, three days being the extreme limit under normal circumstances.

He further states that he tested his theory with two frogs' hearts. One of these, which had ceased to beat, he put in a magnetized serum; the other, still beating, was immersed in an ordinary serum. At the end of several days the magnetized heart began to beat and continued to beat at the contact of an electric current, while the other was completely dead.

Dr. Durville began his experiments with a study of the effect of magnetism on microbes and says he is able to stupefy or even kill cholera bacilli. He says also that he has completely mummified a human hand by passes.

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of Those Ugly Spots.

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription othine—double strength—has been discovered that is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from your druggist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

PERSHING STOPS MORO REBELLION

Uprising On the Island of Jolo Put Down.

NATIVES EASILY OVERCOME

Sultan of Jolo, Emboldened by and Misunderstanding American Attention to His Dusky Highness, Worked Up His Followers to Pitch of Fanaticism Which Sent Them Gladly to Death Against American Bayonets.

Manila, June 13.—Brigadier General J. J. Pershing, commander of the department of Mindanao, with an American loss of six killed and twelve injured, captured the intrenchments of the rebellious Moros under the command of the sultan of Jolo. The fighting was fierce and the resistance of the natives, who were cornered, was desperate. In the last few minutes of the engagement the Moros threw themselves on the bayonets of the American soldiers. The victory was complete. All the intrenchments occupied by the Moros were taken with the exception of a small stronghold further up in the mountains. With the advantage that General Pershing has obtained, however, it will be an easy matter to storm that little fort. Its capture will be effected in a day unless the Moros surrender.

The Americans stormed the trenches at daybreak. After a severe shelling the guns were stilled and the Americans swarmed over the trenches. The fighting in the trenches was sharp and so desperately did the Moros fight that only a few were taken alive, preferring the paradise promised by Mohammedan teachings, to being taken prisoners.

Two privates of Company M, Eighth United States Infantry, were killed. The others who were killed comprised three members of the Fifty-first company of scouts and one of the Twenty-first company of scouts. Lieutenant Edwin H. Rackley was wounded in the leg.

General Pershing has a splendid reputation as a friend of the Filipinos. In many parts of the island he has established friendly relations with the natives. He, however, is determined, in accordance with the instructions from Washington, to stamp out the rebellion. The Moros are reckless fighters. They have resisted for months the efforts of General Pershing to stamp out rebellion in the southern part of the island. The aim of the commander is to disarm the tribesmen and thus insure peace throughout the islands. At first much hope in gaining that end was placed in the sultan of Jolo. Presents were sent to him. Instead of conciliating him they increased his idea of his strength and caused him to defy the American soldiers.

When hope of a peaceful settlement seemed gone, General Pershing decided upon aggressive measures. The attack was made with an unusually large force, the general's object being to reduce the number of casualties among Americans by having a large force.

SULTAN OF JOLO IS IN BAD

War Department Will Investigate Evidence of Treachery.

Washington, June 13.—Major General J. Franklin Bell, commanding the Philippine division of the army, was called upon by the war department for an immediate report in regard to the operations which General Pershing is conducting against the Moros in the island of Jolo. The war department had received no information in regard to the engagement except the press reports.

Some apprehension was felt at first by General Wood, chief of staff, over the report that the sultan of Jolo was leading the Moros. If this is true the sultan, who has been relied upon by the American authorities, has been guilty of treachery, and this might mean a serious menace to General Pershing's command. After further reflection General Wood was inclined to doubt the report, placing strong faith in the sultan, whom he knew very well when he was in the Philippines.

Two Stokers Jump Overboard.

Queensdown, June 13.—Two firemen on the White Star line steamship Majestic suddenly became insane and jumped overboard. Lifeboats immediately were launched and the Majestic remained for some time in the vicinity of the spot where the men struck the water, but the search for them was fruitless.

Negro Sentenced For Life.

Bloomington, Ind., June 13.—Life imprisonment was the punishment given Bill Williams, the negro who killed W. H. Fielder, a subcontractor at one of the Bloomington Southern railroad construction camps, May 31. It was the shortest murder trial ever held in Monroe county, taking only about seven hours.

Killed Husband and Child.

Harrisonville, Mo., June 13.—Mrs. Arthur Kellar has confessed that it was she who killed her husband, a railroad laborer, and their daughter Margaret, seven years old, last Tuesday. Kellar and the girl were slain with an axe as they lay in their beds.

CIVIC ASSOCIATION ACTS

Declaring That a Combination of Commission Men and Produce Dealers Are Engaged in a Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade, Inquiry Will Be Made to Get at the Facts in Alleged Plot Against the Consumer.

Indianapolis, June 13.—Officials of the Federation of Civic Associations are planning for their organization to take up an investigation of the reported combination of commission houses and produce dealers for the restraint of trade in produce in Indianapolis.

At a meeting of the federation a committee of five was appointed to make a thorough investigation of the situation. H. E. Negley, president of the federation, says that if it is found that conditions are such as they are generally reported, the federation will take active measures to have them remedied.

A resolution presented for the association's approval recited that there is a reported combination among the various produce commission houses and dealers who have agreed that they will not sell vegetables, fruits and produce to grocers who buy direct from the producers. The charge has been made that it is practically impossible for the producers to sell direct to Indianapolis grocers on account of the alleged prohibition by commission houses and dealers. Such a condition, it is believed, is prejudicial to the welfare and the health of the community.

MINING CONDITIONS BEING LOOKED INTO

Senate Committee Continues Its Investigation.

Charleston, W. Va., June 13.—On their return last evening from a trip into the late strike region, where the entire day was spent in inspecting mining conditions, the senate subcommittee resumed its investigation at 9:30. Colonel George Wallace, judge advocate of the defunct military committee, developed in a strong way the state's defense of the proclamations of martial law, which is that the civil courts were practically inoperative during the strike in that no indictments could be found and no convictions secured for riot offenses. He cited affidavits of the sheriff, circuit court clerk and prosecuting attorney to that effect. He said it was on the strength of those sworn statements that martial law was declared.

Governor Hatfield, who had been served with a subpoena to produce all the military records of the martial regime, sent a lengthy statement to the committee giving reasons why he thought the findings of the military commission should not be published and requesting the committee to have ex-Governor Glasscock produce all the records on the witness stand. However, he said, he was willing to produce them himself if the committee insisted.

The committee acquiesced in the governor's request. Governor Hatfield's letter stated that he had not approved of any of the findings of the last military commission, which was now a defunct body. He declared he had not done any act under martial law, but had imprisoned men under the Red Men's act.

The rest of the night's session was taken up with hearing testimony of miners whose mail had been interfered with. When one witness stated that he had been unable to get his mail for a period of three months, one of the attorneys asserted the man was not expecting any particular mail. Senator Martine's wrath was vented in a few words.

"Whether this man expected a love letter or a check does not make a damn bit of difference," he said, and the big crowd roared.

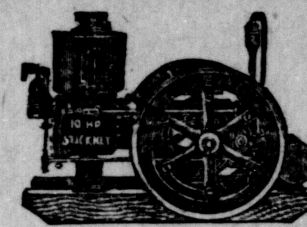

MUST HAVE THEIR DOPE

Drug Victims Driven Across State Lines to Gratify Cravings.

Evansville, Ind., June 13.—Druggists at Henderson, Ky., twelve miles below Evansville, report that since the Indiana legislature at its last session passed a stringent law against the sale of cocaine, morphine and other drugs, many of the "dope fiends" in this city go to Henderson to try to buy these drugs. One of the leading druggists at Henderson said that almost daily he has calls from Evansville persons for either morphine or cocaine and sometimes for both. The Henderson druggists refuse to sell the drugs to Evansville persons, because the law in Kentucky against the sale of drugs is about as stringent as the Indiana law. The Illinois law is not so drastic, however, and it is said that many of the drug users in southern Indiana and western Kentucky go to southern Illinois towns.

To Defeat Machine.

In Fort Wayne there is a strong trend, like that in South Bend, toward a citizen's movement to overthrow the odious machine now in power. Mayor Hosey and his gang will be confronted with a non-partisan ticket. The first step toward this was taken last week when the Progressives decided against a separate ticket and declared their readiness to co-operate with Republicans to defeat the Democratic machine. The Fort Wayne News says:

"The fury and distress displayed by the Hoseytes over the refusal of the progressives to become a side show for their circus should offer the best sort of an argument in defense of the action taken. The Hoseytes were bent upon using the Bull Moose to pull their chestnuts out of the fire and to this end their best efforts were given for weeks. The nomination of a duly accredited progressive ticket or a duly accredited Republican ticket they realized would probably mean Hosey's success, and no endeavor was spared by them to thwart the independent movement. But so intent were they that they overplayed he part and made it manifest to everyone what their desire really was. The solicitous interest manifested by intensely partisan Hoseytes in the welfare of the progressive party and that deep concern that it should maintain its identity by nominating its own ticket were actually funny, and far from accomplishing their design had the effect of awakening the Progressives to a realization of the fact that an effort was being made to use them as cat's paws.

"But even had not the Hoseytes made their purposes so plain, it is not at all likely that the moosers would have fallen into the error of nominating a ticket. It must be apparent to all good citizens this year that their duty to Fort Wayne lies in an alliance that is independent of party denomination. It is to be a battle of decency against the underworld and decency cannot afford to divide its forces. For the underworld always fights as a unit."

Trouble in the Ranks.

The Columbia City Post, democratic organ of Whitley county gives voice to the following:

"The Hon. Charles A. Greathouse, superintendent of public instruction in the state of Indiana, may be fitted for the position he is filling, but the insolent manner in which he treated Superintendent Fleck and the people of Whitley county in failing to keep his appointment here last Saturday would justify the conclusion that he is decidedly deficient in the characteristics of a gentleman. When he made his appointment for Columbia City he should have kept it, or if, as he claims, he was compelled to go to New York, it would have been only common courtesy for him to have notified Superintendent Fleck that he could not be here and had sent a substitute. But he did nothing of the kind. Mr. Fleck was at the train to meet him, and when he failed to arrive, was at a loss to know what had prevented his coming. This was later explained by the lady substitute. If Mr. Greathouse really had to go to New York he could have made very good time by coming to Columbia City and keeping his appointment, and then could have taken a Pennsylvania train and reached the metropolis in time to transact business Monday, as he could not get there from Indianapolis in time to accomplish anything. Superintendent Fleck and the people of the county are indignant over the manner in which Greathouse treated them, and they have a right to feel that they were shabbily treated. It is said that it is not uncommon for the state superintendent to turn such tricks as this."

The Greensburg Upstart, a newspaper that has so far failed to get a reputation, insists that the people of the sixth congressional district James E. Watson. Whether the editor knows better and willfully misrepresents the thing, or is so unfortified with facts is not known. At any rate it is a common occurrence, for him to make such sneering, caustic insinuations. If he will consult some of the good Republican brethren in Greensburg he will find that James E. Watson was never defeated for congress, but that he retired of his own accord to become the Republican candidate for governor, and he carried the sixth district, incidentally, by a good majority.

Time for the Indianapolis Star to hail that decision of the United States supreme court establishing the right of a state to fix railroad rates within the border lines of reason, as another "Great Progressive victory," says the Muncie Press.

Yet a majority of the members of the same court, we believe, are appointees of William Howard Taft, that hopeless reactionary and tool of the "speshul intrusts."

What a lot of lying has been going on with reference to Taft, the republican party and the federal courts. We are again reminded that political necessity is the mother of invention.

CONSOLATION MEETING HELD

time in order to fully establish Reed's identity and then the steps to prosecute were taken.

Yesterday, in company with H. H. Evans, prosecuting attorney, Mrs. Reed motored to Knightstown, where she had an interview with Mrs. Nancy Bailey Reamer, spouse No. 2. The two had an interesting meeting in which they exchanged consolations and vowed eternal vengeance on the cause of their matrimonial mishaps.

It had been stated that Reed had a bank account in a town in Ohio worth about $3,000. Mrs. Bailey said that her husband had never mentioned it but had said that he had had money but that it was in a trunk which was lost in the Dayton flood. Wife No. 1 said that Reed's trunk is now in her possession.

Among Reed's effects at Knightstown was found a paper bearing the following writing: "Anna Myers, Ohio, all fools are not dead yet." It is believed that Reed was planning to effect a matrimonial alliance with the Ohio woman and would have duped and robbed her in the same manner as he did his New Jersey bride.

Mrs. Bailey started that she had been corresponding with Reed since last September, having started the writing through a matrimonial agency. She said that shortly before her marriage to him she received a letter from him written in Alabama stating that he had changed his name to Reamer. The circumstance did not cause her to suspect the man as a crook or a bigamist.

Mrs. Read, No. 1, after her trip to Fostoria will continue her journey to her home in Rochester, N. Y. There she will take steps to have her marriage with Reed annulled. Mrs. Bailey will likely take the same course. She came to the county jail Tuesday night to bid her husband farewell before he was taken to his new abode in the state's prison in Michigan City.

progress and recited the great things that had been accomplished.

Her address disclosed the remarkable scope of the home mission work and the great field of endeavor that is open to the societies. She told of the training schools maintained by the national society at Washington, D. C.; Kansas City, Mo.; San Francisco, Cal.; Union Town, Pa., and Nashville, Tenn. In these schools girls are prepared to go into the world and carry on the work of the society. They leave the training schools as nurses, teachers or trained for some other work. The school at Nashville is for the training colored girls alone. The one at Union Town is for foreigners exclusively.

The work of the society, Mrs. Weaver said, is limited to the United States and its possessions. In addition to these training schools, it has established hospitals, industrial schools and schools to prepare young women for slum work. There is a deaconess home in Indianapolis which is supported by the Home Missionary society. It is planned to build a new home there next year. The society assists in supporting the Methodist hospital in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Weaver told of the wonderful work among the mountaineers of the south and at the immigrant homes, maintained by the society at Ellis Island, Boston, New Orleans and San Francisco. She related an experience gained at Ellis Island, where Miss Mathews, who is head of the society's station is known as the "angel" of the island. She said that she spent from one o'clock one morning until three in the afternoon and saw nearly four thousand immigrants. Miss Mathews has been in this work 27 years.

Mrs. Weaver related stories of the frontier work, where ministers are poorly paid and have to depend on the home missionary societies for their livelihood, of the schools that are maintained in many large cities for foreigners and of the work in Porto Rico and Alaska. The society sends a barrel of household necessities every year to some minister who is on the frontier and receives as low as $200 a year for his ministrations.

The exercises by the Mothers Jewels of Connersville in the afternoon and by the Queen Esther circle of the same place in the evening demonstrated the vastness of the work and the opportunity for consecration. The little girls were dressed to represent the many races who are reached and helped by the society, and the exercise, in one instance, and the dialogue, in the other, impressed the delegates with the greatness of the field.

Mrs. Hargrove presided because of the illness of the president, Mrs. J. M. Montgomery of Shelbyville. She was first vice-president last year. Mrs. Ed Michener of Connersville was elected first vice-president for this year. Mrs. T. E. Murphy of Glenwood, second vice-president, and Mrs. W. M. Crist of Brookville was re-elected corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Jordan of this city, recording secretary and Mrs. Harry C. Ray of Shelbyville, treasurer.

The conference delegates to the national convention are chosen by districts. The delegates to the 1913 convention was named from the Bloomington district and the Connersville district was next. Mrs. Ed. Michener of Connersville was named as alternate to the 1914 convention.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church will celebrate Children's day on next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock with a musical cantata entitled "The Posy Bed," of which the libretto and lyrics are by Alice C. D. Riley and the music by Jessie L. Gaynor.

SYNOPSIS.

The scene is laid in a garden where the little children are busily engaged making a posy bed. Under the supervision of Mary Ann, Kate and Jane, the little seeds are coaxed from their cradles and blossom into living flowers. First comes the pussy willow, who in turn summons the daffodils, crocuses, violets, buttercups, daisies, dandelions, sunflowers, poppies, and pansies. Butterflies flit among the flowers. The pansy is declared king and he chooses Liesel, the Goose Girl, as queen of flowers.

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

We are informed by the Indianapolis Star that the Indiana members of congress have "fared exceptionally well" in the matter of committee assignments, owing to the herculean labors of Representative Lincoln Dixon, a member of the ways and means committee, who participated in the distribution of assignments.

An inspection of the list of assignments shows that although the Indiana delegation ranks well in the matter of experience, the state will have one committee chairmanship during the present congress and that the unimportant one on Expenditures in the War department, a committee with little or nothing to do.

Four Indiana members, Korbly, Kline, Cox and Moss lose their committee chairmanships. For the first time in years Indiana is unrepresented on the committee on buildings and grounds, which controls the appropriations for government buildings.

When Indiana was represented in congress by Republicans, the state was not relegated to obscurity. It held such important chairmanships as those of the committee on appropriations held by James A. Hemenway; post offices and post roads, held by Jesse Overstreet; printing held by Charles B. Landis, and census, held by Judge Crumpacker, while the state was represented on the ways and means committee during the entire period of Republican control, beginning with 1895, first, by Major Steele and later by James E. Watson. In those days Indiana was a factor in legislation; today its entire delegation, with one or two exceptions, might drop out of the house without leaving a ripple on the surface.

INDIANA LEADS.

Muncie Press: One of the contentions of Senator Beveridge in the last campaign was that Indiana was behind Russia in the matter of good roads. The Good Roads Year book just issued by the American Highway association, shows that Indiana has more miles of improved roads than any other state of the Union, and that its improved roads form a larger percentage of its total roads than those of any other state in the Union except little Rhode Island. It is evident that the senator knows more about the Russian advance than about the Hoosier advance.

HE SHOULD WORRY.

Muncie Press: A recent statement of President Wilson is taken as a reputation of the one presidential term plank of the Baltimore platform. Mr. Wilson is borrowing trouble. If he has no better luck than the last Democratic president the question will take care of itself.

Program of Annual Indiana Sunday School Convention Will be a Varied Affair.

The program of the Indiana Sunday School Convention, to be held in Evansville, June 17, 18 and 19, will include nine sessions filled with great addresses by the leading religious educators of the country. Besides these, there will be a number of conferences, whose deliberations will have an important bearing upon the Sunday school work of Indiana during the coming year.

W. C. Hall, State President, who has been so untiring in his efforts to promote Sunday School work, will be chairman of the convention. Of the nearly seven thousand county and township officers, connected with organization, auxiliary to the State Association represents a splendid constituency of consecrated voluntary workers who will meet in council, in connection with the convention, and the departmental conferences, will give an opportunity for meeting specialists in informal session for the discussion of work.

To make it possible that no time be lost during the three days a number of luncheons, banquets and other social affairs are being planned.

An elaborate exhibit of Sunday School Equipment will be on display showing the progress in Sunday School material.

NOT A TWINGE OF RHEUMATISM SINCE TAKING RHEUMA

"I suffered from Rheumatism for six years; tried different doctors, with no relief. I saw your advertisement and decided to try RHEUMA. I have taken three bottles and am entirely free from the disease. I was so bad I could not sleep nights; now I sleep well and my kidneys work perfectly."—P. W. Miller, Catawissa, Pa.

"For 14 months I was so badly afflicted with Rheumatism that much of the time I was obliged to use a cane. I used one bottle of RHEUMA and THE CANE IS IN THE CORNER NOW. No one could be happier to be rid of the pain, swollen knees and badly swollen ankles. I certainly believe there is no remedy for the disease like RHEUMA."—Mrs. Daniel S. Knox, Severance, N. Y., Aug. 8, 1912.

F. B. Johnson & Co. guarantee RHEUMA to cure Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Sciatica, Arthritis, Chronic Neuralgia and Kidney disease or more yaback—and only 50 cents a bottle.

HOW THEY GOT VIEWS BEFORE THE PEOPLE

Sugar Protectionists Secured Senatorial Frank.

Washington, June 13.—When Truman G. Palmer, leading spirit of the sugar protectionists, was on the stand, the lobby investigators got down to the details of the publicity campaign which the enemies of the free sugar propaganda have been waging.

"Sugar at a glance," the brochure of sugar protectionists' views and data, which was circulated to the extent of more than 300,000 copies, was the principal item in the vast bulk of "literature" which the sugar men scattered over the country. How it was made up and why and how it was put into circulation furnished the subject matter of more than three hours of the session.

In the end Mr. Palmer, exhausted with the long grueling, told the committee why the sugar men had made their fight. He said: "The plan of action that I outlined to the sugar men of all groups of protectionists, was to leave no stone unturned. To fight, fight, fight to the last ditch to prevent the passage of this section of the tariff bill which, if passed, will in my opinion destroy the industry."

"It is our right," he contended, "to go to our legislators, to argue with them."

"Sugar at a glance," is a comprehensive presentation of the statistics of sugar production in the United States and elsewhere. It was published as a senate document last summer. Every copy of the publication went through the United States mail free as a public document under the frank of Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. Senator Reed computed that through the use of a senatorial frank a saving of about $16,000 ensued to the sugar protectionists' committee.

Following the examination with regard to the franked literature the committee took up the exploitation of the sugar protection contention through the service of free plate matter to newspapers. Several such sheets of sugar talks were produced. Senator Walsh was disposed to question this method of sending out free news to the little newspapers as a system of deceiving the public. Senator Reed thought so, too.

Boy Shot From Vacant House.
Scottsburg, Ind., June 13.—An investigation is being made of the shooting of Thelma, aged eleven, the son of John Rich, a farmer of Scott county. The boy, who, with his sister, aged six, was crossing a field, was shot from a vacant house on the farm. The assailant used a shotgun, and the charge struck the boy in the abdomen and one hand. A motive for the shooting cannot be found.

Stole Soil Off Gary Lot.
Gary, Ind., June 13.—Attorney Claude V. Ridgely, who had the sand on his lot covered with black earth so he might have a lawn, has reported that thieves came in the night and scraped off all the black soil.

FINAL TOUCHES ON TARIFF BILL

Senate Committee About Ready to Report.

GETTING READY FOR CAUCUS

Majority "Whip" in the Upper House Stands to Have His Hands Full, as Leaders Have Determined That All Democratic Members Shall Take Part in Final Caucus and That All Must Abide by Caucus Rule.

Washington, June 13.—So far as the senate committee on finance is concerned, President Wilson has won his fight on free sugar and free wool. The wool duty and the sugar duty have been approved by the full committee, but with a reservation that the time for the schedules to go into effect shall be held open to be settled after the bill has been completed and when the committee takes up the consideration of the date when the bill generally shall go into effect.

A motion was made in the committee to drop the three-year limit on the reduced sugar duty, the effect of which would have been to defeat free sugar, as it has been planned by the president. Senator Williams of Mississippi made the motion, but it was defeated.

Some of the duties on glass were increased by the committee, over those of the Underwood bill as it passed the house, while other duties were decreased. This effect of this change will mean a slight decrease of the duties on glass above those of the house bill. The committee also put asphaltum on the free list. The Democratic leaders are working to bring the tariff bill into the senate next week, but the best judgment is that the bill will not be reported in the senate until after the Fourth of July.

The committee also is working on the administrative features. The income tax provision is being rewritten. The administrative features of the tariff bill have given the sub-committee much trouble. Senator Williams came before the finance committee with a suggestion that the senate committee on finance report in favor of continuing the administrative features of the Payne-Aldrich law temporarily and appoint a commission of experts to go over the administrative features of the existing law and those proposed in the Underwood bill and report a revision of them to congress to be considered at the regular session in December. The preponderance of sentiment, however, was against this suggestion. Democrats objected to having anything tagged with the name of Aldrich attached to their revision, even temporarily.

The senate leaders are determined that all Democratic senators shall take part in the caucus on the tariff bill and be bound by its action. It will be necessary to have every Democratic senator present during the consideration of each and every paragraph of the bill, otherwise the absentee may claim immunity from the caucus rule that binds him to vote for the item thus considered. The Democratic members of the finance committee are trying to prevail on the committees investigating the lobby and the West Virginia mine troubles to expedite their work in order to be ready to participate in the caucus when the time comes to call it.

FIVE PASSENGERS KILLED

Disastrous Rear End Collision in Railway Yards at Stamford.

Stamford, Conn., June 13.—A rear-end collision in the railroad yards here resulted in the death of five persons and the injury of fifteen or more, some of them seriously.

The dead are: Dr. H. G. Howe of Hartford; Frank Canfield, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. D. J. Kelly, Winthrop, Mass.; Everett H. Woodruff, Flushing L. I.; unidentified elderly woman.

Among the seriously injured was Gregory Humes of the New York World, and A. Gosdick of Brooklyn. At the hospital it was said that these men had very little chance to recover.

Engineer Doherty, on the second section of the train, waving his arms desperately in warning to the train crew ahead, stuck to his post, and though the engine was driven half through the parlor car, he escaped injury. According to the railroad officials, Engineer Doherty ran by the signal set against him a short distance east of the place of the accident.

The Duffy Case a Mistrial.

New York, June 13.—The jury in the case of Police Sergeant Peter J. Duffy, on trial for bribery, reported to Justice Goff that there was no prospect of their coming to an agreement after a little over twenty-four hours of deliberation, and were discharged. The vote throughout stood 11 to 1 for conviction.

Fatal Aerial Joy Ride.

Lima, O., June 13.—Andrew Drew, son of a millionaire of St. Louis, dropped 200 feet to his death in a blazing biplane last evening when the gasoline tank in his machine exploded while he was taking a "little joy ride."

New parliamentary sensations are promised in England by the connection of officials with speculations in oil.

"Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence

CONSIDER SIZE OF WIRE When Buying Fence
DON'T BE FOOLED by Weight per Rod or Roll

There's no "bunkum" about weight per rod when you buy "Pittsburgh Perfect" because it is constructed without using extra wire to make the fence-joints. The extra weight of the joints in all wrapped, clamped, twisted or tied fences supplies no extra strength, but actually weakens these fences by persistently dragging down the panels, wearing them out before their time and making you buy more before you should. "Pittsburgh Perfect," the only fence with Electrically Welded Joints, is a one-piece fabric of unequalled strength, durability and economy, because we eliminate the expense of extra wire, and put this money into extra quality.

Made in Different Styles for FIELD, FARM, RANCH, LAWN, CHICKEN, POULTRY and RABBIT YARD AND GARDEN

Every Rod Guaranteed

Ask your dealer for "Pittsburgh Perfect" and insist on his furnishing it. Do not allow him to persuade you that some other fence is just as good. If he doesn't sell it, write us direct.

The Latest Styles of Buggies

Don't be afraid you will get the old styles. I have the 1914 styles and you will see the best style in the city—no better one on earth than we sell. The prices—TIME or CASH. I have Second Handed Buggies that I can sell at all kinds of prices. Some very good ones. Call and see them. The prices on them will suit you.

Harness Harness

I am making up some of the best $15.00 Buggy Harness—the best for the money ever built in the city. I make them in my place of business. Nothing bought; everything made by men that live in the city and if you don't buy the harness they make they will have to go where they do BUY AT HOME.

Twines Twines

I have plenty of Twine, 3-ply Hemp, Kentucky Twine, and other Standard Twines.

To the Farmer:

Will have a car of Wire for Fencing and all kinds, and I will have the right price. I will have the wire made. C. H. Alger has this wire on his farms, and he says it is the best he ever used. Sam Young knows Charley won't lie. Charley has about six hundred acres of land and will use this wire on what he wants at present.

J. W. Tompkins

The Perfect Construction of a Buggy Depends on the Small Details

That is why our buggies are the ones that give long road service. Every small detail is looked after. There is not a screw or a bolt left out that would add strength to any part. No pains or material spared to make these buggies the best that can be built. Look at one of them and you will see that it is braced in every place that would give it added strength. Every place that is in the habit of breaking on other vehicles is re-enforced on the buggies we sell and there is just as much difference between a vehicle we sell and the other kind you see as there is between a tailor-made suit of clothes and a cheap manufactured one, because every buggy we sell is built to our own special specifications and that is how we get the road service. By experience we have learned where to re-enforce a buggy to make it wear. If you want a buggy that is built right, looks right, and is right in every detail of construction, we want your business.

EVIDENCE AGAINST "THE VICE TRUST"

Further Facts About Detestable Business.

New York, June 13.—Indictments have just been returned by the grand jury against two men and two women alleged by witnesses to be at the head of a combination of keepers of questionable resorts in the old tenderloin which has been called "the vice trust." The indictments name Mortche Goldberg, Rosie Goldberg, his wife, Louis Goldberg, not related to the first, and Gussie Cohen. Mortche Goldberg is said to be on his way to Buenos Ayres, where Samuel Levine, an employee of the group, is said to be already. Louis Goldberg is supposed to be in Paris. The whereabouts of the others is not known to the prosecutor's office.

The indictments charge the four with running questionable resorts, a misdemeanor. The testimony on which the indictments were based was given by two women, who were convicted last Friday of running similar resorts. They said that they were employees of the combination, each running one of the thirty separate resorts in the city alleged to be the property of the syndicate. In addition to the thirty places, the district attorney's investigators say that the group has an interest in thirteen other resorts.

The witnesses told a detailed story of the operations of the group. They said that each resort contained about forty women, and all were operated on the same plan, opening at 8 o'clock at night and closing at 4 o'clock in the morning. After the closing hour, they said, the heads of the group went around collecting the proceeds. The individual women received half of their earnings, the witnesses said, and added that at the height of the syndicate's prosperity it controlled 1,600 women. From figures given by the witnesses, who later went before the grand jury, and from other information, the district attorney's men computed the gross income of the string of resorts roughly at $360,000 a month, of which half went to the women themselves. Out of the remaining $180,000 a month, they figured, $1,000 a month for each resort, or $30,000 a month in all, went for police protection and there were various other expenses which, however, left close to $116,000 profit.

JUNE MAKES A VERY GOOD START

Fire Loss of Indiana For the First Week of This Month Amounts to $133,200.

Twelve Fires Are of Unknown Origin and Fight Are Direct Result of Defective Flues.

June made a "good" start toward upholding Indiana's record for fire losses, incomplete reports for the first five days, received by W. E. Longley, state fire marshal, showing a total loss of $133,200. There were 64 fires.

This is very close to the record made during May when the approximate daily loss by fire was around $30,000.

For the week ending June 5, taking in the last two days of May, 84 fires were reported, with a total loss of $169,210.

One significant feature of the investigation of the causes of fires during that period, is the large number attributed to "adjoining fires."

Twenty-seven of the 84 fires were caused by the burning of near-by or adjoining buildings.

"This demonstrates," says Fire Marshal Longley, "that the danger of fire is two-fold. Not only may fire occur on your own premises, but you are in constant danger of fire from adjoining buildings. It is clear, then, that it is every man's concern to be sure that fire hazards are eliminated throughout his entire community. Wherever there is a hazardous condition, the buildings on all sides of it are in peril."

Twelve fires were classed as being of unknown origin. Eight were caused by defective flues.

Seven of the fires are believed to be of incendiary origin, while six were caused by carelessness with matches and lighted cigars.

Explosions caused five fires and lightning the same number. Sparks from chimney caused four fires. Stoves set fire to four properties and spontaneous combustion, two. One fire was caused by defective wiring and there were three of miscellaneous character.

One of these occurred in a South Bend "suitorium" where brimstone, in the pocket of a coat which was being cleaned, became ignited and set fire to gasoline in a tank.

Mrs. C. G. Bartlett Thursday was elected first vice-president of the of the Richmond district, northern Indiana conference of the Methodist church, at the annual meeting which was held in Richmond.

BLACK SOX HERE SUNDAY

Ramblers Will Take on Fast Indianapolis Team.

The Indianapolis Black Sox, a fast colored team will play the Ramblers, a colored team Sunday afternoon at the South Main street grounds. The game is made possible because the Rushville team will play at Shelbyville Sunday, and the grounds will be turned over to the colored players. The Ramblers were in the field last year and played a snappy game. The Black Sox is considered one of the best colored teams out of Indianapolis, and a fast game is expected. Innis will probably pitch for the locals.

DIES IN HAMILTON.

The two-years-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Crews of East Eighth street died today in Hamilton, Ohio, where with her mother she had been visiting. Mr. Crews was called there this morning. The cause of death is not known. The remains will be brought here tomorrow morning at 11:16 o'clock and burial will take place in East Hill cemetery.

THIS TIME SHE TRIES FILIPINO

Knightstown Woman, Twice Divorced, Marries Berilo Macasaet, Native of Philippines.

A FULL BLOODED ORIENTAL

He is Cook in Restaurant—Bride Says it is Last Time For Her.

Berilo P. Macasaet, 25 years old, a native of the Philippine Islands, yesterday afternoon secured a license to marry Mrs. Hettie Perry, 30 years old, of Knightstown, and they were later married by Squire Koons, says the Newcastle Courier. Macasaet is a cook in a Knightstown restaurant. His father's name was Pablo Macasaet and his mother's maiden name was Fabiana Cabiligon. His father is dead.

This is perhaps the first instance in the history of Henry county where a full-blood native of the Philippines secured a license to marry an American girl. The practice is not uncommon, however, as many instances in other states where residents of the Philippines have married American girls.

Macasaet and his bride-to-be seemed very happy as they tripped from the court house with their marriage license.

The two were married by Justice of the Peace P. M. Koons. While the squire was making out the marriage certificate the bride volunteered the information that this was the third time for her and that if it wasn't successful it would be her last. It was his first time. She has been twice divorced and gave her occupation as a domestic. Her father's name is Charles Crawford.

The newly married couple made the request of Justice Koons not to announce the marriage as they wanted to get away before their friends found out about it.

ALFALFA

Alfalfa should be sown by the 20th of July

Make Ready—Put out 3 or more acres and learn what it is worth. With hay worth $10.00, a crop of Alfalfa would amount to from $40.00 to $60.00 per acre. Get some of the Highland Montana Grown Seed at E. A. Lee's. This is a very hardy variety and best suited to this climate.

We also have a few Cow Peas left yet. They should be sown by the first of July. Come and get a few and know their worth as a feed and soil restorer.

hired a team and had the machine pulled to town. He was met at the gates of the city by the marshal and the two entered upon a discussion of points of law which shortly attracted a crowd. The argument lasted for several hours, with varying success for each man and when it finally was finished, the two contenders awoke to realize that while they quarrelled the owner had driven his car away.

The machine had been driven 135 miles. It was abandoned on a hill, where it went dry and stuck.

RECOVERS BICYCLE.

A bicycle belonging to John Hill was found this morning in the alley by the Wilson residence in East Second street. The wheel was stolen from in front of the Finney store in Third street last night. A lamp was taken from the bicycle but nothing else was missing. Chief McAllister returned the wheel to young Hill.
